

Fort Leonard Wood Academy

Fort Leonard Wood, MO – Thirty motivated Marines graduated from the fourth class of the Fort Leonard Wood Academy 16 December 2011. The Academy is the infrastructure for all Formal Instructor training MOS here on Fort Leonard Wood. The distinctive character of this particular Academy class is that it is comprised solely from detachment personnel for the first time. These thirty instructors are now Basic Instructor qualified and ready to teach their MOS. They are challenged to mold, mentor, and lead tomorrow's Marines. Congratulations to Class 1-12!
